

Washington Update

Congress Urged to Focus on Energy Efficiency Incentives for Existing Housing Stock

As the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee heard testimony on a suite of energy efficiency bills, including legislation to make residential housing more energy-efficient, NAHB on June 9 urged lawmakers to take into account the differences in energy savings between the newest, highest-performing homes and older, less-efficient homes that comprise the vast majority of the nation's housing stock. Read More...

Also In This Issue

Join the Conversation

- E-mail Our Editor
- Print Full Issue
- Forward to a Friend
- Search Back Issues
- Manage Your Subscription
- Subscribe to e-Newsletters
- Browse Other e-Newsletters
- Browse NAHB Books & Periodicals
- NAHB Home Page

Reshaping and Enriching our Communities.

National Association of Home Builders
1201 15th Street, Washington, DC 20005-2800